

Zoo Quiz

The answers to the questions below can be found around the Zoological Gardens. Good luck and enjoy your day here at Kirkley Hall Zoological Gardens

Question 1: Alpacas come from which region?

Question 2: What is the main diet for Rheas?

Question 3: Capybara are the worlds largest what?

Question 4: What is different about the fleece of the African Cameroon sheep?

Question 5: Sheep and goats are ruminants, what feed do they mainly eat?

Question 6: Why are the Cameroon sheep suited to live in Africa?

Question 7: How many toes do the Emus have?

Question 8: Wallabies are from which countries?

Question 8: Wallabies keep their babies warm and safe where?

Question 9: Looking at the micro pigs, which sense do they use the most?

Question 10: Why do Eagle Owls have feathery legs?

Question 11: What are the main threats to Edward's Pheasants today?

Question 12: Why is the Northern Helmeted Curassow endangered?

Question 13: Kookaburras are from which country?

Question 14: What are the names of our three macaws?

Question 15: Parma Wallabies are from which countries?

Question 16: How many birds can you see in the wetlands aviary?

Question 17: How many different species can you see in the wetlands aviary?

Question 18: If you have any contact with any animal what must you do afterwards?

Question 19: What colour food do Swinhoe Squirrels like best?

Question 20: Meerkats are diurnal, when are they active?

Question 21: African Dormice are nocturnal, when are they active?

Question 22: Why are fire bellied toads called so?

Question 23: What's another name for the Common Marmoset?

Question 24: What is the diet of the Pygmy Marmosets?

Question 25: Where do Ring Tailed Lemurs come from?

Question 26: How long can a Brazilian Rainbow Boa live in captivity?

Question 27: Where do Rankins Dragons come from?

Question 28: Where do corn snakes get their name from?

Question 29: What are the main threats to Radiated Tortoises in the wild?

Question 30: What are chameleons famous for doing?

Well Done. Hope you have enjoyed searching for the answers. For the answers please ask for a copy at the Kiosk or if you are part of a school group ask your keeper guide who will go through the answers with you at the end of your day.